

Interior Designer

Position Description: Gould Evans is seeking an experienced Interior Architectural Designer to work as part of our collaborative design studio in Kansas City. The ideal candidate would have 5-8 years of experience, with a degree in architecture, interior architecture or interior design. The role would be heavily focused on elevating the quality of interior architectural design across many of our projects.

Gould Evans' design portfolio is intentionally diverse – in project type, scale and location. This diversity is a strength that encourages innovative, critical thinking and discourages a formulaic approach. Above all, we work to create solutions that transform their surroundings, engage their occupants, sustain their environment and support our clients' missions.

We seek employees who share our values of intellectual curiosity, collaboration and passion for meaningful design outcomes. Currently, we have more than 150 associates across our Kansas City, Lawrence, New Orleans, San Francisco, and Phoenix studios. A recognized "Best Place to Work" by Ingram's Magazine, Gould Evans embraces equity, diversity and creative freedom as core values.

Primary responsibilities of the position:

- Work collaboratively within our studio, encouraging and challenging one another toward more innovative solutions to our clients' design challenges
- Collaborate with clients to determine their vision, purpose and function for the environment, budget, and end outcomes.
- Integrate findings with project-specific research and knowledge of interior design, formulating solutions that are grounded in best practices yet unique to the client's needs.
- Experienced in handling the client process, with excellent presentation and relationship building skills, and the ability to understand and interpret client needs and requirements.
- Render design ideas in form of models, drawings, and illustrations and present designs to client for approval.

This is a full-time position which includes generous benefits such as vacation time, sick time, medical, dental, vision, life and disability insurance as well as participation in a 401(k) and employee stock ownership plans.

We're seeking candidates with:

- Professional experience in the field of architecture, interior architecture, or interior design with a passion for creating remarkable interior environments.
- Collaborative, team-based approach to problem solving and a propensity to explore multiple solutions to a given problem.
- Demonstrated ability to think in visual terms, to communicate, illustrate and present ideas effectively, and to lead clients through challenging problem-solving exercises.
- A passion for research in the human factors aspects of interior design.
- NCIDQ Certification and/or Licensed Architect preferred
